- Complies the daily projected Air Tasking Order (ATOs) in accordance with the requested tasks; publishes and communicates ATOs to all relevant elements in accordance with the established procedures and deadlines.
- Participates in coordinating the integrated search and rescue operations for UN air assets and other aircraft upon request.
- Handles and coordinates diplomatic overflight/landing clearances, ground handling support and hotel accommodation/meal/transportation arrangements for aircrews.
- Proposes and plans aircraft parking locations in coordination with local airport authorities, MovCon and the landing/unloading team and helps to ensure that the ramp area is clear of items that could cause Foreign Object Debris (FOD) damage.
- Monitors fuel upload and ensures that refuelling operations are in accordance with the host country and safety standard procedures.
- Carries out the handling, loading and processing of dangerous cargo as per ICAO, CAA, IATA and UN established regulations, policies and procedures.
- Review aircraft weight, balances record, loads manifests and report any irregularities.
- Verifies cargo manifest.
- Monitors and ensures that aircraft are properly parked as per ICAO, CAA, IATA and UN regulations, policies and procedures.
- Monitors passengers embarking and disembarking in coordination with MovCon personnel and local airport staff.
- Monitor ramp access per guidance contained in the UN Aviation Manual and local directives.
- Performs other related duties as required.
- Ensures that all UNVMC policies are applied and followed thoroughly across all processes, including adherence to UNVMC code of conduct and ethics, and integrates a gender-sensitive approach in all functions.

Core values:

Professionalism: Knowledge of travel related processing requirements; ability to recognize and act in the face of conflicting priorities. Shows pride in work and in achievements; demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter; is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results; is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns; shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges; remains calm in stressful situations. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work.

Integrity: Demonstrates the values of the United Nations in daily activities and behaviours. Acts without consideration of personal gain. Resists undue political pressure in decision-making. Does not abuse power or authority. Stands by decisions that are in the Organization's interest, even if they are unpopular. Takes prompt action in cases of unprofessional or unethical behaviour.

Respect for diversity: Works effectively with people from all backgrounds. Treats all people with dignity and respect. Treats men and women equally. Shows respect for and understanding of diverse points of view and demonstrates this understanding in daily work and decision-making. Examines own biases and behaviours to avoid stereotypical responses. Does not discriminate against any individual or group.

Competencies:

Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently.

Communication: Speaks and writes clearly and effectively; listens to others, correctly interprets messages from others and responds appropriately; asks questions to clarify and exhibits interest in having two-way communication; tailors' language, tone, style, and format to match audience; demonstrates openness in sharing information and keeping people informed.

Education:

A high school diploma or equivalent is required.
